

December 2006/January 2007

PetUtopia

Kansas City architects and interior designers, members of the International Interior Design Association (IIDA), designed fashionable furnishings for pets. Prizes were awarded for best in show, and all the designs were auctioned off to benefit Canine Companions of Independence.

Kim Fitch, Angie Killion and Deidre Brady from Cranford Architects show off their award-winning creation, a "Cranford Carrier."